Privacy Notice

Texas Institute of Dermatology

This notice discloses the privacy practices for Texas Institute of Dermatology and www.txid.org.

Information that We Gather:

We collect only information that you voluntarily give us via email, phone or in other direct contact. Specifically, that would be:

- Your first and last name
- Your email address
- Your telephone number(s)
- Your mailing address
- Personal health information (if you so choose)
- Your insurance

We are the sole owners of the information collected. We will not, under any circumstances, sell or rent it to anyone, or share it with anyone outside our organization or website host and/or manager.

Use of Your Information

We will use it only to respond to you about the reason you contacted us. Unless you ask us not to, we may contact you via email, phone in the future to tell you about specials, new products or services, or changes to this privacy policy.

Security

Online

We do not ask you to supply any credit card data or social security number via our website, and any personal health information you do supply is voluntary. You do not need to give us any details.

Offline

We protect your sensitive information offline. No-one is given access to it except employees who need it to contact you or set up your file.

What You Can Do ?

You can opt out of any future contacts from us at any time by replying to a received email, asking us to discontinue them or by calling 210-698-6777. We will then remove your email address from our list.

Please be aware when you use any link we provide to leave our site. Read the privacy statements of any other site that collects personally identifiable information. We are not responsible for the content or privacy practices of other sites.

If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, please contact us immediately by calling 210-698-6777 or via email to info@txid.org.
